INSTRUCTOR – Aileen Robertson – Ayr, Scotland

AILEEN ROBERTSON has judged many Canadian, United States, and Australian Championships. Aileen teaches workshops throughout the world, and has recently returned from her first trip teaching in New Zealand.

Aileen started dancing at the age of seven under the tuition of Miss Elspeth Strathern, from which she continued her career by winning every major championship title in Scotland, including the British Open, United Kingdom and Commonwealth. She also won the Mid Canada Championship in Winnipeg. The highlight of her career was winning the World Championship three times – the Junior Championship Title in 1972 and the Adult Championship in 1974 and 1976. Aileen also won the Oscar Award for Champion of Champions.

Aileen is a Fellow and Examiner of the Scottish Dance Teachers Alliance. She is a life member of the BATD, a member of the UKA and is on the worldwide pane of adjudicators of the SOBHD. She is head delegate to the SOBHD representing FUSTA and is on the registration committee of the SOBHD. She is a delegate on the technical committee representing the SDTA

Aileen has a successful dancing school based in Ayr, Scotland and has formed the Ailsa Craig Dancers. The Robertson School has had many successes in choreography as well as training pupils to world class level.
